Reflecting on the growth and major events of 2022

Looking forward to 2023

THE HUSTLE AND BUSTLE

of the holiday season has arrived. It's hard to believe another year has come and gone, but it has certainly been a productive year. We started 2022 with 87,422 active meters and 5,596 miles of line. It looks like we'll finish the year with close to 90,000 active meters and 5,690 miles of line. The continuous growth throughout Horry County is substantial, which means additional infrastructure, meters and workload.

Looking back

As I reflect on the past year, two significant events come to mind. Only 20 days into the new year, Horry County was faced with Winter Storm Jasper. Our crews prepared for high winds and ice. Fortunately, we were blessed and the storm did not impact Horry County as predicted. Our crews responded to minimal outages and the system did not sustain any storm damage.

Fast forward to September when Mother Nature struck again. Hurricane Ian made landfall in Florida as a Category Four hurricane. After crossing Florida, Ian was forecasted to be a tropical storm by the time it reached South Carolina. Mother Nature had other plans. Ian strengthened back into a Category One hurricane and made a second landfall around Georgetown.

Our crews, alongside contractors and mutual aid crews from other co-ops, worked throughout the storm, battling high winds and heavy rain. Over the course of two and a half days, crews restored power to more than 35,000 meters impacted by Hurricane Ian.

Throughout both events, Horry Electric received an outpouring of support from the community. Our employees are proud of Horry Electric's system, so when a storm hits, they are eager to get to work.

I know I speak for everyone at the co-op when I say we appreciate your patience and prayers during these events. To simply say "thank you" is an understatement.

Bring on 2023

As 2022 comes to an end, rest assured that your co-op, its employees, management team and trustees are always looking out for you. Our primary focus is our members. We strive to provide safe, reliable and affordable electric service, along with excellent member service.

We are excited for 2023 and can't wait to see what the new year holds for Horry Electric's 83rd year of business!

This edition of South Carolina Living is a two-month issue, so you should receive your next magazine in January 2023. All of us at Horry Electric would like to wish you a Happy Thanksgiving, as well as a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Effective Jan. 1

The facilities charge for single-phase service will increase from the current rate of $25 to $26 per month. The charge for three-phase service will increase from $35 to $36.

The facilities charge is a monthly fixed amount charged to each meter at each service location, regardless of the amount of electricity used. It is for the expenses related to providing service to the meter, which include utility plant investment; operation and maintenance costs; administration and general costs such as billing and property taxes; and depreciation.

HEC employee receives Quilt of Valor

IN SEPTEMBER, the Conway Quilt Guild presented Advanced Line Technician Chase Cox with a Quilt of Valor during a ceremony at the VFW Post 10804 in Little River. Due to an illness, Cox was not present when the Guild presented six other Horry Electric employees with their quilts in July.

Founded in 2003 by Catherine Roberts, whose son was deployed in Iraq, the Quilts of Valor Foundation has presented a hand-stitched quilt to countless brave men and women who have served our nation.

Cox served in the Army from 2010 to 2015. He took part in Operation Enduring Freedom and was in Afghanistan for 11 months.

"It means a lot to me any time I'm recognized for my service," says

Cox. "I'm very grateful to have been recommended for this great honor."

Some of the awards Cox received for his time in the service include the Army Service Ribbon, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, National Defense Service Ribbon, Afghanistan Campaign Medal and many more.

"We are beyond proud to have veterans serving in our ranks at Horry Electric," says Executive Vice President and CEO Danny Shelley.

Cox says what sticks with him most is the brothers he's made. "The families that all became intertwined and the bond I still have with so many guys that I served with is incredible," says Cox.

As a reminder of his service, Cox plans on hanging his Quilt of Valor

HEC awards Bright Ideas grants

BRING ON THE SMILES! Horry Electric loves being involved with the community. That's one of the reasons why the co-op launched the Bright Ideas grant program in 2007. Innovation is one of the four core values that Touchstone Energy Cooperatives practice.

As part of celebrating Co-op Month in October, 10 grants totaling $8,870 were awarded to teachers across the county.

"This is such a rewarding opportunity for us to give to our community and our schools," says Toni Gore, coordinator of the Bright Ideas program. "I'm so glad we were able to surprise these teachers in person this year, after doing this virtually the past two years."

Bright Ideas was created to provide funding for innovative classroom-based educational projects. The grants awarded are intended to fund projects outside of normal public and private school funding parameters. Any Horry County teacher of grades K-12 is eligible to apply.

"We always encourage teachers to apply! We love the opportunity to help turn a teacher's idea into a reality," says Gore.

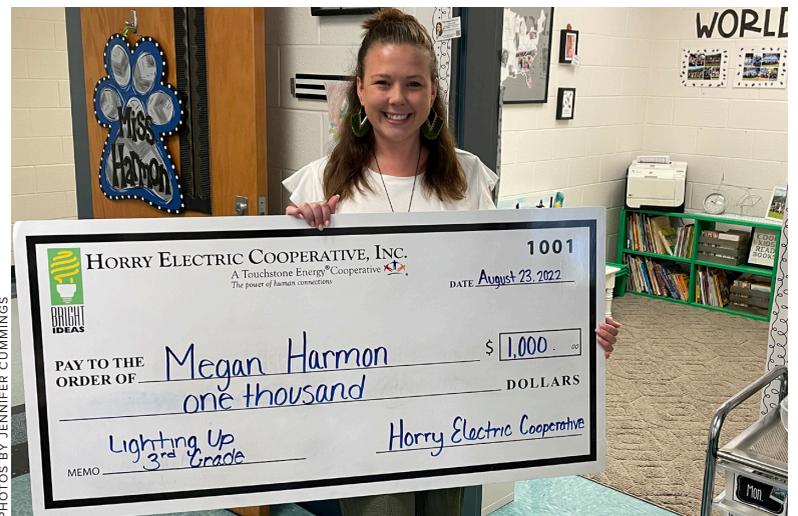

Horry Electric is proud to present the 10 winners for 2022.
